Moreover, many other people and institutions helped in a lot of ways during these years of work, either by collaborating with the coordination tasks or by helping with fieldwork, logistics or the obtaining of permits. Our warm thanks to all them: Famille Bounjim de Larache, Salima Hamidi (Faculté des Sciences d'Oujda), Abdssalam Bouchafra (Directeur de la Réserve Biologique de Sidi BouGhaba), Haut Commissariat aux Eaux et Forêt et à la Lutte contre la Désertification, A. Our thanks are also due to all the authors of the species accounts for their patience during the draw-out editorial process. Carles Barriocanal and David Robson participated very actively throughout this process and wrote many species accounts thanks to a grant for scientific research awarded by the Catalan Ornithological Institute. We would also like to extend our thanks to Joan Carles Senar and Montse Ferrer for their support during all the editorial tasks and to Mike Lockwood for revising the English language. Fernando Spina and Felix Liechti made helpful suggestions that improved various aspects of this monograph.
